They sailed across the sea to the dark continent ~~of~~ <sup>It was</sup> supposed to be fun, <sup>ametal</sup> is was supposed to be cool, but ③ Carcosa was ~~terrible~~ instead. When they did despair, when all hope seemed lost, they met a wonderful friend... he was Shuggy... Shuggy-doo... the talking Shuggoth pet... the best!

He was Shuggy... Shuggy-doo... the talking

Um läut

The Dark Lord has spoken to the Metal Faithful. The bands must compete and the best band must face the Krampus Demon band in a head-to-head battle for the future of the Winter Solstice. If Krampus should win, there will be no light, no end to Winter, and the world will be sucked into the depths of hell. Rock on!

Each player is the leader of a Metal band. The bands must compete — the winner challenges Krampus. But, there should be some cooperation and bolstering of the lead band or everyone loses!

Og

Theme

① Strange Man Come. Bring eat.

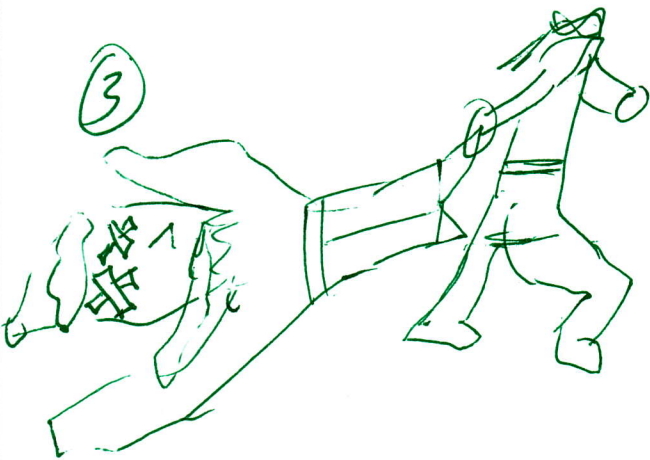

② Og happy.

③ Bad tribe make strange man no come.

④ Og no eat. Og not happy. Grrrrrr!

The Party is a group of stone age characters with extremely limited vocabularies must rescue the strange man from the bad tribe. Sounds simple, but in the Land of Og, even the simple is difficult.

Mouse Guard

Timothy, Alfalfa, Flax, Violet, Periwinkle, and Mäize love Christmas time. Every year the big Red Man shares some of his (1) cookies with Adlpose, "mouse town," and there are always lots of crumbs left on the floor after the human family eats — you just have to avoid the cats! (2) This year the human family has left, but a mean group of humans broke into the house and had the Red Man tied up with them! Worse yet, the mean humans brought several cats with them!

If you want any cookies, you'll have to figure out how to free the Red Man. If you could drive the mean humans away, all the better.
